This file tests the preprocesor extension ("-e preprocess").

This is one paragraph.

This is the next paragraph. Now, we will test that we can add a bit of space using the new syntax:

Now, we're going to test that we can use the syntax to include both restructured text and stylesheets:

50% width	50% width

This is a paragraph that should be half-page wide.

Finally, we're going to try setting table widths to 20%, 80%, and then the other way around:

Hi	there
How	are you?
